Tokyo, March 13, 2019: Remixpoint Inc. (Securities Code: 3825) Representative Director, Chairman, and CEO Genki Oda was elected to The World Economic Forum's 2019 "Young Global Leaders".

One hundred of the world's most promising artists, business leaders, public servants, technologists and social entrepreneurs under 40 have been asked to join the World Economic Forum's community of Young Global Leaders. They are joining a community and five-year program that will challenge them to think beyond their scope of expertise and be more impactful leaders. They were nominated because of their ground-breaking work, creative approaches to problems and ability to build bridges across cultures and between business, government and civil society.

It is the first time for the leader of a company that develops the crypto currency business to be elected to the Young Global Leaders. As a member of the Young Global Leaders going forward, Genki Oda will contribute to solving social issues using blockchain technology. We hope to grow the use of the technology globally.

Please refer to this link for details on the Leaders selected for 2019.
